

Deck Armour offers a 1-year manufacture defect warranty from the date of purchase, provided by and through the accredited distributor you are purchasing Deck Armour from.

This means that the product installed, is free from defects in materials and workmanship at the time of manufacture and installation. The warranty is only valid when the complete invoice has been paid.

Also the warranty is non-transferrable if the vessel is sold to another party.

This limited warrantee is subject to the buyers consent to the responsibility and care for the Deck Armour flooring in accordance with the Care Instructions & Warranty. The Deck Armour distributor will not provide any warranty or proceed, unless the buyer signs and returns the Care Instructions & Warranty. The warranty only covers flooring that has been installed by an approved accredited agent for Deck Armour.

The limited warranty only applies to the material and workmanship of the covered product itself. This warranty excludes any damage, deformation or discolouration occurred from a lack of care, wear and tear, or by Light Amplification. The Warranty is void if the product exceeds 70 degrees Celsius.

It is the buyer's responsibility to clean the Deck Armour product as outlined in the care instructions & warranty. Any damage, discolouration or degradation occurred by external contaminants like, old bait, animal excrement, chemicals, tree sap or solvents will not be covered in the Warranty.

If there are any concerns that the Deck Armour product is defective, the buyer needs to contact the Deck Armour Representative as soon as possible. Do not contact Deck Armour Australia. To entitle the buyer to claim a warranty, they must cease using the product and receive advice as to not cause further damage. Photos or videos of the defective product need to be supplied via email to the distributor to assess what is needed to fulfil the warranty. If the product is defective, the Deck Armour distributor will repair or replace the flooring section deemed defective, free of charge. Any warrantee claim excludes costs associated to travel and accommodation to get to the customers residence or factory.

If the Deck Armour distributor decides to, in their sole discretion, to repair or replace the covered product in certain situations, this is not construed as a waiver of any exclusion or other limitation to this warranty stated herein. Neither are they to be construed as a course of dealing that in any way modifies the terms of this warranty.

Representatives of Deck Armour are committed to help their customers. If there is any issues or concerns, please understand we will do our best to help our distributors to rectify the problem as soon as it is reasonable.
